Dear Friends,

We want to say that it is a pleasure to write you and tell you about the good news that God is allowing to happen at Amando a los Niños.

As you know, we began our project so enthusiastic, looking up to our God, trusting that He was with us and that He was going to help us in this precious job as it is to reach His needy children to Him and show them that there is a Heavenly Father that loves them. Receiving children into our home has been very difficult, especially during this time when Guatemala has been discussing laws about international adoptions and becoming Hague compliant. This year, we were able to help in some way with Brazos de Amor Orphanage and we also have two children in our home (our dearest Tony and Melissa).

Some days ago, we received a notification from the court that Tony and Melissa were going back with their parents. It was so sad to say good-bye to our two first children and the judge said that she could remember how the kids came from their own home to Amando a los Niños. She told the parents that the children were allowed to return with them but for one year the social worker from the court will be visiting this family to be sure that Tony and Melissa continue to do as well as what they did at Amando a los Niños in the time that we took care of them. It was so great. The judge congratulated Amando a los Niños and was impressed to see how the children improved in a short time. On the other hand, it is so good to know that their parents love them and want to do the best for their children. Now, thanks to God we have great, great news.

We wanted the girls from Brazos de Amor to finally be a part of Amando a los Niños. Now, Sandra, Rita, Consuelo, Silvia, Lichita and Kevin are living in our home and Digna is not by herself anymore; she is working with us and living with the girls in our home. We know that this was a wise decision and we are happy for it because we can see the girls very happy and Digna can now take care of them as well as they need. They are receiving support in the school, Kevin that has a paralysis in the middle of his body and brain and Lichita that has Down syndrome are having special attention with our psychologist and special education teacher. They are having their vacation school, counseling, and a christian minister is coming to teach them Bible and English (so you are invited to Amando and make the children practice their English!...).

Another wonderful piece of news is that we have three more kids that are beautiful; it is so exciting. They are Adela, Jeniffer and Melvin. Moreover, something that is bringing joy to our hearts is that they are very happy and the adaptation time has been short, we are talking about one or two days. Our goal that they could feel a family is forming in their hearts and we are so happy and grateful to God because at least He is allowing us to take care of His children. At the same time, He opened the doors to have the privilege to join our hearts with you. You all are beautiful people that trust in our project and help us. Thank you again for joining your heart to this project of love and hope. There are no words to express our gratitude for your help during all this long time.

Now... begins the time to grow. We are expecting more children. We decided to change some things in our vision. We are receiving babies, little boys until 6 years old, and girls from 8 to 10; and of course, we are receiving little girls from 4 to 6 years old. As expansion becomes possible, we think that another house will be necessary or buy a land and built houses.

For now, we are sure that this Christmas time in our home will be full of joy and satisfaction looking around us many pretty smiles and expecting the New Year with many blessings.

Again, thank you for all your help. You are in our hearts and prayers every day and our desire is that God will bless your life, your family, your job and bless you with prosperity.

With love in Jesus Christ,
Enrique & Carolina Cazali
