Winter Jam Tour Spectacular

February 15, 2008
Greenville, SC at the BiLo Center
7 p.m. (doors open at 6 p.m.)

*Please bring baby items for our clients that will be distributed between Bethany and local pregnancy care centers
(diapers, baby clothes, bottles, wipes, etc.)*

Please Pray for . . .

- Jeanette and Katie, as they get acclimated to their new roles at Bethany.
- Wisdom for the Bethany board and staff, as they make plans for 2008.
- Clients, as they adjust to a new worker.
- The many lives impacted by abortion in the past 35 years.

Praise Reports . . .

- For the Lord's provision in 2007.
- For donors whose gifts enabled this ministry to continue.

Katie Belser

We welcome birthparent counselor Katie Belser to the Greenville Bethany office. Katie has a master's degree in social work from the University of South Carolina. She recently relocated from Charleston, where she was a home health social worker for elderly and/or disabled homebound clients. Katie will be working with birthparents and foster families.

Jeanette Maxey, Greenville's New Director

Jeanette Maxey grew up in Pennsylvania. She attended Florida Atlantic University, where she earned both a bachelor's and a master's degree in social work. After moving to South Carolina in 2007, Jeanette worked for Greenville Mental Health.

She is an adoption specialist who will be assisting families as they go through the adoption process, whether it be domestic, international, or embryo adoption.

Jeanette will also be working closely with the Greenville Bethany board in planning promotional and fundraising events.
